Finding Support for Theories

Independently, select two or three theories you created about the main character in your own text that you feel you can find support from multiple places in the text. Keep track of your findings in the chart below. You may bullet-point your evidence (you will elaborate on the evidence at another time).

Theory about Character	Evidence from Text
Theory #1
Theory # 2
Theory #3	